Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 2 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

Figure 1 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The Abstract exceeds 150 words.

Appropriate correction is required.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

Reasons for allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Referring to claims 1, 4 and 7, Prior Art fails to disclose giving, by broadcast communication, a notice that the first command can be newly accepted to each of the communication apparatuses in the network when the notice of the state change based on the setting is sent from the second communication apparatus to the first communication apparatus in combination with other limitations set forth in the respective claim.

Referring to claim 10, Prior Art fails to disclose of control means for generating a first command to give a notice that there is a specified state change to be executed by control of a specified communication apparatus in the network and for transmitting the first command from the communication means, and for generating a second command to give a notice that the first command can be accepted and transmitting the second command from the communication means when the first command is rejected in combination of other limitations set forth in the respective claim.

Referring to claim 11, Prior Art fails to disclose of monitoring the reserved first state change after giving a notice based on generation of the second state change and giving a notice that a state change is generated in the first communication apparatus due to generation of the first state change in combination of other limitations set forth in the respective claim.

Referring to claims 14 and 17, Prior Art fails to disclose a second control means for setting to judge presence or absence of a specified state change based on the command received by the second communication means and to give a notice when the state change is generated, and for setting to reserve a notice instructed by the received command when the setting is carried out and the second communication means further receives the command, and to give a notice that the reserved state change is generated when a notice of the state change is given by the setting in combination with other limitations set forth in the respective claims.

Referring to claim 19, Prior Art fails to disclose a control means for distinguishing setting into a state in which the notice can be given and a state in which reservation is carried out until the notice can be given and judging based on a response received by the communication means in combination with other limitations set forth in the respective claim.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
